

1 Corinthians 7:1-16

1. How did Paul receive the question about marriage in Chapter 7? _____
2. It is good for a man not to what? _____
3. Since immorality was occurring each man should have sexual relations with whom?

4. Each woman should have sexual relations with whom? _____
5. Both husband and wife should fulfill what? _____
6. The wife yields her body to whom? _____
7. The husband yields his body to whom? _____
8. Neither husband or wife have authority over what? _____
9. They were not to deprive each other except by what? _____
10. So that they may devote themselves to what? _____
11. They were to come together again, so as not to be tempted by whom? _____
12. They could be tempted for lack of what? _____
13. Paul said this as a concession and not what? _____
14. Paul wished they were all like him, but realized that they each had their own what? _____

15. To whom did he say it was good to stay unmarried? _____
16. If they can't control themselves, they should do what? _____
17. It is better to marry than to what? _____
18. What command of the Lord did Paul restate? _____

19. From v. 11, what two options does the wife have if she separates? _____

20. The husband must not do what? _____
21. A brother must not do what to an unbelieving wife who is willing to live with him? _____

22. If a woman has an unbelieving husband who is willing to live with her, she must not do what?

23. The unbelieving husband has been sanctified through whom? _____

24. The unbelieving wife has been sanctified through whom? _____

25. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are what? _____

26. If an unbeliever leaves, the brother or sister is not what? _____

27. God has called us to live in what? _____

28. What two questions are raised in verse 16? _____
